Our Belief: Receiving the Lord's Supper

The Apostle Paul wrote, "A man ought to examine himself before he eats of the bread and drinks of the cup." (1 Corinthians 11:28) In order to examine yourself before attending the Lord's Supper, when offered, ask yourself the following questions:

1. Do I believe I am a sinner, and am I sorry for my sins?
2. Do I believe Jesus, by His death, offers me forgiveness for all my sins?
3. Do I believe I receive the body and blood of Jesus in and with the bread and wine? (They are not merely symbolically present.)
4. Do I truly desire to turn from my sinful ways?

If you are able to answer "yes" to these questions, we invite you to join us for the Lord's Supper, when offered. Children and adults who cannot answer affirmatively are invited and encouraged to come forward for a blessing but should refrain from receiving the bread and wine.*

*For those who are unable, or prefer not to consume wine, cups with white grape juice are located in the center of the communion trays.

How do I respond to a broken relationship?

Thought Before Worship

"I've wondered, though, if one of the reasons we fail to acknowledge the brilliance of life is because we don't want the responsibility inherent in the acknowledgment. We don't want to be characters in a story because characters have to move and breathe and face conflict with courage. And if life isn't remarkable, then we don't have to do any of that; we can be unwilling victims instead of grateful participants."

— Donald Miller, A Million Miles in a Thousand Years

Confession of Sins and Absolution

God and Father, I have lived with hurt and brokenness throughout my life. I have been in relationships where my heart was bruised by the selfishness of another. And because of that, my heart has grown harder and harder. I want to blame these people for the hurts they've caused me. I want to hold on to these hurts and use my anger as a weapon. But I come to You today to release this brokenness. And I know that this same ability for evil lives within me. So please, for Jesus' sake, forgive me of the wrongs I've caused others. So that I can have Your power to forgive those who sin against me. In Jesus' mighty name, amen.
