Our Belief: Receiving the Lord's Supper

The Apostle Paul wrote, "A man ought to examine himself before he eats of the bread and drinks of the cup." (1 Corinthians 11:28) In order to examine yourself before attending the Lord's Supper, when offered, ask yourself the following questions:

1. Do I believe I am a sinner, and am I sorry for my sins?
2. Do I believe Jesus, by His death, offers me forgiveness for all my sins?
3. Do I believe I receive the body and blood of Jesus in and with the bread and wine? (They are not merely symbolically present.)
4. Do I truly desire to turn from my sinful ways?

If you are able to answer "yes" to these questions, we invite you to join us for the Lord's Supper, when offered. Children and adults who cannot answer affirmatively are invited and encouraged to come forward for a blessing but should refrain from receiving the bread and wine.*

*For those who are unable, or prefer not to consume wine, cups with white grape juice are located in the center of the communion trays.

Thought Before Worship

"If God be our God, He will give us peace in trouble. When there is a storm without, He will make peace within. The world can create trouble in peace, but God can create peace in trouble."--Thomas Watson

We All Bow Down

Confession and Absolution

Lord Jesus, you remember us every moment of every day, in all of our triumphs and in all of our trials. But we are not like you. We forget so easily. We forget to love you as you love us. We forget to share your love with our family, friends and the world. We forget to focus on you in all of the hustle and bustle of the holidays, even though this is a season all about you. Forgive us for our forgetfulness and sin. Remember our sin no more, even as you remember us in your Kingdom forever. Amen
