Our Belief: Receiving the Lord's Supper

The Apostle Paul wrote, "A man ought to examine himself before he eats of the bread and drinks of the cup." (1 Corinthians 11:28) In order to examine yourself before attending the Lord's Supper, when offered, ask yourself the following questions:

1. Do I believe I am a sinner, and am I sorry for my sins?
2. Do I believe Jesus, by His death, offers me forgiveness for all my sins?
3. Do I believe I receive the body and blood of Jesus in and with the bread and wine? (They are not merely symbolically present.)
4. Do I truly desire to turn from my sinful ways?

If you are able to answer "yes" to these questions, we invite you to join us for the Lord's Supper, when offered. Children and adults who cannot answer affirmatively are invited and encouraged to come forward for a blessing but should refrain from receiving the bread and wine.*

*For those who are unable, or prefer not to consume wine, cups with white grape juice are located in the center of the communion trays.

Cry Out to Jesus

Confession and Absolution

Jesus, you lived a perfect life, but I have not. Lord, you even grieved perfectly when you lost everything. Forgive me for how I respond to loss in my life. Forgive me for the doubts and the self-pity that enter my mind. Forgive me for the anger and bitterness that enter my relationships. Forgive me for the times I give up and retreat, rather than press on through the pain and learn what you are trying to teach me. Be with me when I grieve, and forgive me all my sins. In your precious name I pray, amen.
