Thought Before Worship

To be a Christian means to forgive the inexcusable, because God has forgiven the inexcusable in you.

Confession and Absolution

Lord, Jesus, I am the one with the unpayable debt of sin. I have used and abused, neglected and rejected, and altogether failed to love You and others. There is no way I can pay it. It is more than I can bear. So have mercy on me, Lord, according to your steadfast love. Blot out my sin. Renew me by your Holy Spirit and set me free to forgive others as You have forgiven me. Amen.

OUR BELIEF: Receiving the Lord's Supper

The Apostle Paul wrote, "A man ought to examine himself before he eats of the bread and drinks of the cup." (1 Corinthians 11:28) In order to examine yourself before attending the Lord's Supper, when offered, ask yourself the following questions:

1. Do I believe I am a sinner, and am I sorry for my sins?
2. Do I believe Jesus, by His death, offers me forgiveness for all my sins?
3. Do I believe I receive the body and blood of Jesus in and with the bread and wine? (They are not merely symbolically present.)
4. Do I truly desire to turn from my sinful ways?

If you are able to answer "yes" to these questions, we invite you to join us for the Lord's Supper, when offered. Children and adults who cannot answer affirmatively are invited and encouraged to come forward for a blessing but should refrain from receiving the bread and wine.*

**For those who are unable, or prefer not to consume wine, cups with white grape juice are located in the center of the communion trays.*
