MISSION

The mission of the Charis Center for Christian Counseling is to build up the family in the truth of God's Word and to bring healing to the church and community members.

PURPOSE

The purpose of the Charis Center for Christian Counseling is to provide professional insight in the context of Christ's love in the process of resolving personal issues and strengthening families within the congregation and community. This is accomplished by offering a variety of classes and programs, and individual, family, and couple counseling with experienced and professional counselors.
